Listing of Claims

1. (Previously Presented) A computer program product, comprising a computer usable medium having non-transitory computer readable program code embodied therein, said computer readable program code adapted to be executed to implement a method for generating a report, said method comprising the steps of:

obtaining responses to a plurality of questions of each of a plurality of individual capability tests from the individual, the individual capability tests providing for the rating of a plurality of competencies of an individual, the individual capability tests each having a plurality of questions used to assess a plurality of attributes associated with at least one of the plurality of competencies, each of the individual capability tests being a standardized measure of a psychological construct;

cross-referencing the responses relating to one of the plurality of attributes from at least two of the plurality of individual capability tests;

creating a comprehensive individual capability evaluation report that rates the plurality of competencies, the report being at least partially based upon the cross-referencing of the responses; and providing the comprehensive individual capability evaluation to the individual by at least one of a printed report, a computer file, or a display screen.

Appl. No. 10/823,829

2. (Previously Presented) The product of Claim 1 wherein said cross-referencing step includes creating a plurality of hallmark analysis within the comprehensive individual capability evaluation report, each one of the plurality of hallmark analysis relating to a specific quality of the individual.

3. (Previously Presented) The product of Claim 1 wherein said plurality of questions relate to one of the set of competencies including: Integrity, Continuous Learning, Speed/Initiative, Energized Team-building, Quality/Customer Oriented, Extraordinary Results, Effective Communication, Financial Literacy, Strategic Focus, and Emotional Maturity.

4. (Previously Presented) The product of Claim 1 further comprising the step of creating an individual action plan document containing a listing of transformational activities for enabling the individual to improve identified areas on the comprehensive individual capability evaluation report.

5-8. (Cancelled)

9. (Previously Presented) A computer readable medium, including non-transitory operating instructions thereon such that when interpreted by a processor cause the processor to perform the steps of:

providing a plurality of individual capability tests to a user of the computer system to rate a plurality of competencies of an individual, the individual capability tests each having a plurality of questions used to assess a plurality of attributes associated with at least one of the plurality of competencies, each of the individual capability tests being a standardized measure of a psychological construct;

obtaining responses to the plurality of questions of each of the plurality of individual capability tests from the individual using the computer system;

creating a comprehensive individual capability evaluation report that rates the plurality of competencies; and providing the comprehensive individual capability evaluation report to the individual by at least one of printing the report on paper, saving the report to a computer file, or displaying the report on a display screen.

10. (Previously Presented) The computer-readable medium of Claim 9 wherein the instructions further cause the processor to perform the step of creating an individual action plan document containing a listing of transformational activities for enabling the individual to improve identified areas on the comprehensive individual capability evaluation report.

11. (Previously Presented) The computer readable medium of Claim 9 wherein said plurality of questions relate to one of the set of competencies including: Integrity, Continuous Learning, Speed/Initiative, Energized Team-building, Quality/Customer Oriented, Extraordinary Results, Effective Communication, Financial Literacy, Strategic Focus, and Emotional Maturity.

12. (Previously Presented) The computer readable medium of Claim 9 wherein said cross-referencing step includes creating a plurality of hallmark analysis within the comprehensive individual capability evaluation report, each one of the plurality of hallmark analysis relating to a specific quality of the individual.

13. (Previously Presented) The computer readable medium of Claim 9 wherein said providing step includes using an interactive computer server accessible over a computer network.

14. (Previously Presented) A computer program product, comprising a computer usable medium having non-transitory computer readable program code embodied therein, said computer readable program code adapted to be executed to implement a method for generating a report, said method comprising the steps of:

providing a plurality of individual capability tests, the individual capability tests each having a plurality of questions relating to attributes associated with at least one of the a plurality of competencies, each of the individual capability tests being a standardized measure of a psychological construct;

obtaining responses to the plurality of questions of each of the plurality of individual capability tests from the individual to be evaluated;

cross-referencing the responses relating to an attribute according to a predetermined criteria relating to the competencies;

creating a comprehensive individual capability evaluation report;

creating an individual action plan document containing a listing of transformational activities for enabling the individual to improve identified competencies on the comprehensive individual capability evaluation; and providing the individual action plan document to the individual by at least one of printing the report on paper, saving the report to a computer file, or displaying the report on a display screen.

15. (Previously Presented) The product of Claim 14 wherein said cross-referencing step includes a step of creating a plurality of hallmark analysis within the comprehensive individual capability evaluation, each one of the plurality of hallmark analysis relating to a specific quality of the individual.

16. (Previously Presented) The product of Claim 14 wherein said predetermined criteria relates to one of the set of competencies including: Integrity, Continuous Learning, Speed/Initiative, Energized Team-building, Quality/Customer Oriented, Extraordinary Results, Effective Communication, Financial Literacy, Strategic Focus, and Emotional Maturity.

17. (Previously Presented) The product of claim 1 wherein said cross-referencing step includes cross-referencing by competencies the responses relating to a particular attribute to create a comprehensive individual capability evaluation report relating to the attributes.

18. (Cancelled)

19. (Previously Presented) The computer readable medium of claim 9 wherein said cross-referencing step includes cross-referencing by competencies the responses relating to a particular attribute to create a comprehensive individual capability evaluation relating to the attributes.

20. (Previously Presented) The product of claim 14 wherein said cross-referencing step includes cross-referencing by competencies the responses relating to a particular attribute to create the comprehensive individual capability evaluation report relating to the attributes, and said individual action plan document creating step includes creating an individual action plan document containing a listing of transformational activities for enabling the individual to improve identified attributes.

21. (Previously Presented) The product of claim 1 wherein said providing a plurality of individual capability tests step includes using attributes related to one or more of the following: Assertiveness, Creativity, Strategy, Motivation and Innovation.

22. (Cancelled)

23. (Previously Presented) The computer readable medium of claim 9 wherein said providing a plurality of individual capability tests step includes using attributes related to one or more of the following: Assertiveness, Creativity, Strategy, Motivation and Innovation.

24. (Previously Presented) The product of claim 14 wherein said providing a plurality of individual capability tests step includes using attributes related to one or more of the following: Assertiveness, Creativity, Strategy, Motivation and Innovation.

25. (Previously Presented) The product of claim 1, wherein the step of cross-referencing includes mapping a first question from a first test of the plurality of individual capability tests to a first competency of the plurality of competencies and mapping a second question from a second test of the plurality of individual capability tests to the first competency.

26. (Previously Presented) The product of claim 1, wherein the step of creating an evaluation report includes presenting an evaluation based solely on a first test of the plurality of individual capability tests, presenting an evaluation based solely on a second test of the plurality of individual capability tests, and presenting an evaluation of a first competency based on the cross-referencing of the responses to the first and second tests.

27-28. (Cancelled)
